

NIKKI

Hello and thank you!

I've always dreamed of becoming a mom. For me, it was never about giving birth, growing my family through adoption felt natural and the path I was to take. Being able to create memories and share new experiences together is something I look forward to. I fully expected to get married, but for me, being a mother has always come first. Thank you for taking time to get to know the kind of mother I would be to your child. I truly respect and admire your decision and wish you well on your journey.

about ME

I am a shy person who prefers to spend my time with a close group of family or friends instead of large groups. But if need be, I can hold my own and I love the adventure of meeting new people because you never know how they will impact your future. I enter each day with an open heart and open arms and with a mindset of growth, ready to see where life will take me and where opportunities will lead me.

my FAITH

My faith has been a continuous source of peace and healing in my life. While I cannot predict what the future holds for me, I do know that God will continue to guide my steps and I will teach your child to trust in Him for guidance.

fun facts ABOUT ME

1. I love sea turtles and dreamed I would be a marine biologist.
2. My favorite dessert is German Chocolate Cake.
3. I enjoy listening to podcasts.
4. I love quilting. It's my one hobby where I can escape from work or stress.
5. I carry Lego people around with me wherever I go & I take photos of them along their adventures.

OUR FAVORITE WAY TO TRAVEL... BABY WEARING!

WHAT WE LOVE TO DO for fun!

We love visiting new places and learning about other cultures. Our travels currently take us all over the U.S. and sometimes outside of the U.S. as well. We love finding new parks and playgrounds in places we visit.

We are are passionate about books! We have a collection of over 100 children's books! I myself love to get lost in a good fictional book or one for personal development. As for Sullivan, he much prefers Llama Llama books and books involving dinosaurs.

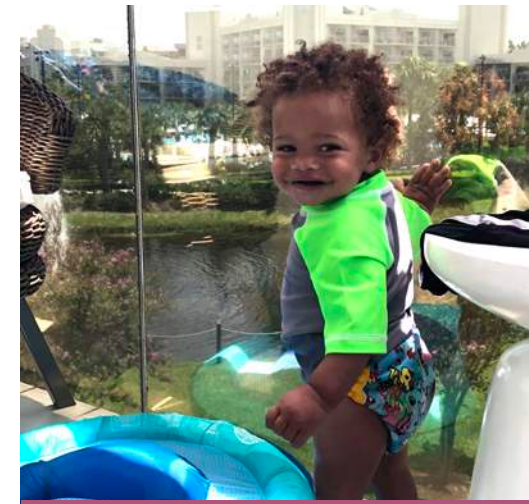

We love the outdoors! We enjoy spending time at playgrounds, exploring new places, hiking, and visiting the cider mill in the fall for caramel apples.

meet SULLY

Sullivan is a year old and loves life. Sully arrived into my life in July of 2018 through adoption and has made my life better in more ways than I could have ever imagined.

Sully's smile lights up the room and his personality is large. He is most excited about dinosaurs, music, and books. We both love spending time outdoors playing, hiking, sight-seeing while traveling, and even doing yard work together. Sully has been working on skills needed to be a big brother and already knows how to give a kiss to the baby when it is bedtime. He loves playing with others and is excited to share in the fun with a sibling.

We have an open adoption with Sully's birth family and look for opportunities to spend time together. While every adoption is different, I welcome the same openness with you as well.

BEYOND PROVIDING A SAFE AND SECURE FUTURE FOR YOUR CHILD, I ALSO LOOK FORWARD TO OFFERING THE FOLLOWING TO YOUR CHILD:

- Support for your child's dreams and goals
- A passion for literature and mathematics
- Discovering the importance of family and friends
- Instilling in your child the importance of volunteering and giving back
- Learning how to be loved and how to offer love
- A home where your child is accepted no matter what and where there is always a listening ear to hear their sorrows and joys
- Introducing your child to other places, cultures, and traditions through travel

FAMILY IS everything

I come from a large and very tight knit family. I am one of 16 grandchildren on my dad's side and one of 6 grandchildren on my mom's side! Your child will be welcomed with a lot of love!!

Nonna and Papa live nearby. Nonna loves to sew. She creates dolls, among other things, that she sells at art shows. There will be a doll named after your child, as she names them after all of her grandchildren. Papa loves taking the kids out on his sailboat. Two uncles and three aunts along with their children ranging in age of four to eleven are all excited to welcome, love and play with a new member of our family.

With all the family I have, there is always someone around that I can count on for anything I need.

work LIFE

AS A CHILD, I LOVED MATH! It's true. I now find myself inspiring a culture of math achievement for my career. I feel lucky! My current position allows me to work with schools and have a direct impact on students. It's extremely rewarding.

I also have the flexibility to create my own schedule since I work from home and will never have to miss an event for your child.

my FAVORITE place

I purchased my home four years ago knowing that it would be a place I could build my family, it's in a good school district, not far from water, and has a yard for gardening and playing outside. I absolutely love my neighborhood too! My fenced in yard will be a great place for your child to play and the state park nearby an even greater place to experience nature together.

in CLOSING

Thank you for taking time to get to know us and for considering me as your partner along our adoption journey. I certainly cannot thank you enough for giving of yourself physically and emotionally throughout your pregnancy to ensure a safe delivery of your child. It is for this reason; I truly believe that your child deserves to know the important role that you played in their life as they continue to grow.

I look forward to getting to know more about you. Nikki
